TIGHE REFUSED WARRANTS. ANOTHER TROLLEY VICTIM.

Brenner Charged Seventeen Men with Illegal Registration.

Col. Bacon Secures the Arrest of Painter Marshall.

Police Justice Tighe, of Brooklyn, refused to grant warrants this morning for the arrest of seventeen men who, it is asserted, have registered illegally in the Sixth and Tenth Wards of Brooklyn.

Application was made for the warrants by Jacob Brenner, of the Republican bureau for the detection of illegal registration. Justice Tighe waited until the greater part of his morning's business was transacted before he took up the bunch of affidavits presented by Mr. Brenner. Judge Tighe scanned the papers critically for a moment and then asked:

"Where are the affidavits of the persons living in these houses to the effect that the persons named in these papers do not live there?"

Mr. Brenner said he could not get the affidavits referred to, and the people would be unwilling witnesses, and that they could be reached only by a subpoena from Judge Tighe.

Judge Tighe then told Mr. Brenner that he would be obliged to refer the whole matter to the District Attorney. "Well, Your Honor," said Mr. Brenner, "I have witnesses here who will swear to their affidavits, and I can give you an answer about these cases to-morrow," said the Judge. "You time and mine is as valuable as that of these witnesses. Let them come to-morrow."

Mr. Brenner told Judge Tighe that four warrants had been issued by him yesterday identical in form with the ones presented to-day. Judge Tighe said he did not think they were identical, and that he intended to submit them to the District Attorney for an opinion.

COL. AUSTEN WILL NOT RESIGN.

Denies that He Will Take Command of the Sixty-ninth Regiment.

A rumor was current in Brooklyn this morning that Col. David E. Austen, commander of the Thirtieth Regiment, will shortly resign to take command of the Sixty-ninth in New York. It is said that Col. Austen intends to tender his resignation next Tuesday.

Col. Austen, however, denies the rumor, stating that it has absolutely no foundation in fact.

"It probably originated," he said, "in a remark I made recently that I believed the Sixty-ninth could be made the most efficient regiment in the New York State Guard. During Gov. Hill's last term General Rogers requested him to detail me temporarily to the command of the Sixty-ninth, but I told General Fitzgerald, the Sergeant-General, also, that I did not approve of the move, and it died there."

MR. HARRISON'S RUDE CONDUCT.

He Distributed Republican Circulars at a Democratic Meeting.

Charles Harrison, of 308 Throop avenue, Williamsburg, was held in the Lee avenue Court to-day on a charge of disturbing a public meeting. Harrison went to Ritting's hall, 241 Floyd street, last evening where a Democratic rally was being held. Harrison, who is a Republican, distributed circulars praising Thomas J. Linnekin, the Republican candidate for Supervisor of the Twelfth Ward. The Democrats grew angry at this, and a big police sergeant, three Harrison arrested him.

"L'Enfant Prodigieux" at the Park. "L'Enfant Prodigieux" presented at Col. Rine's Park Theatre in Brooklyn, before an appreciative audience last night. Mme. Bado, whose illness Monday evening caused the closing of the theatre, was warmly received. At the close of the second act the company received a double ovation. The play, "L'Enfant Prodigieux" will be presented all week.

Stole Bonner's Seven Carpets.

Charles H. Bonner, a real estate broker, of 169 Broadway, New York, notified the Brooklyn police this morning that a thief entered his house at 110 Clinton street, Brooklyn, some time last month and stole seven carpets worth $250. The house has been vacant for several months. The neighbors saw the thief enter the house on Oct. 14, but paid no attention to him, supposing that he had been sent to remove them.

Cut Down by a Train.

The body of a woman was found at midnight in the cut on the line of the Pennsylvania road, near Marion. He had evidently been killed by a train. He was about thirty years of age, 5 feet 7 inches in height and was dressed in a dark suit. The body was found in a ditch, containing the address of William H. Watson, of 148 Amsterdam avenue, New York. The body was found in a ditch, containing the address of William H. Watson, of 148 Amsterdam avenue, New York. Many Dogs May Go Mad.

ACKENBACH, N. J., Nov. 1.—The excitement caused by a Newfoundlander dog which ran amok here Monday has been increased by the fact that in its momentary excitement it was mowed by other dogs afflicted with rabies, as the Newfoundlander bit twenty-seven dogs in the village. The dog was also bit by a man, and a woman, Dennis O'Neill, of Eastwood. It attacked several persons, among them Luke Blavett and Mrs. Moore. It was finally shot and killed by a man. Nine of the dogs bitten have been shot.

London to Be Military Attache.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Col. William Ludlow, major in the Engineers Corps, U. S. A., will shortly be ordered to London as military attaché of the United States legation.

Local News in Brief.

Hugh McDermott, forty-nine years old, fell down a flight of stairs at his residence, 313 Duane street, last night, and fractured his skull. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital.

Myron Jordan, two years old, whose parents live at 241 West Twenty-third street, was taken to the Hospital to-day from burns received while playing with matches.

A FUNERAL PAGEANT.

50,000 Mourners for Chicago's Dead Mayor in Line.

Soldiers, Policemen and Firemen March in Full Uniform.

Fraternities and Trades Unions Bound Out on the Procession.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—At 9 o'clock probably 50,000 people were still awaiting admission at the eastern portico of the City Hall, where Mayor Harrison's body lay in state. The funeral arrangements, however, necessitated the doors being closed.

Preparations for the removal of the body were then commenced. The casket was lifted from the bier and the lid closed. On the top was placed the Maltese cross with the inscription "Father" and the pillow of illness with the name of "Papa," which were the tributes of the daughters and sons of the murdered man.

In the mean time the various societies and organizations whose representation in the parade had been accepted, were forming on the lake front and the streets adjacent thereto. At 8:30 o'clock the doors of the building were again opened, and with heads uncovered and reverently bowed the guard of honor passed down the steps.

Behind them, borne by eight sturdy members of the Police and Fire Departments, came the casket. The heads of thousands of spectators were bared as the casket was borne down the sidewalk and placed upon the funeral car.

At 9 o'clock the funeral procession moved. A platoon of police led the way, followed by the various societies and organizations, and the casket, borne by the members of the Police and Fire Departments.

The fire department division, composed of eight fire-fighters from each of the thirty-one companies, followed the casket. They were in full uniform, and wore memorial badges.

In line, mounted on their richly caparisoned horses, were the Chicago Hussars, under command of Capt. Brann.

These acted as escort to the carriages occupied by the honorary pall-bearers, who were in full uniform. The honorary pall-bearers were: Mayor Harrison, ex-Gov. Oglesby, E. J. Winston, Adolf Krieger, H. H. Hightsham, Fred W. Peck, C. Fitzsimmons, C. K. G. Hillman, ex-Mayor Roche, Judge Adams, J. J. Miller, Lyman Trumbull, H. J. Jones, P. D. Armour, ex-Mayor Medill, and Walter.

There was a slight break in the procession at this point. Then came the funeral car, drawn by four horses, and on either side, with slow and stately step, marched the active police, representing the Police and Fire Departments.

So far the line had been official; now it became a train. In detachment after detachment for over an hour, marched Masons and Odd Fellows, members of Republican, Democratic and Labor organizations, representatives of German, Polish, Bohemian, Irish, French-Canadian, Scandinavian, Italian and British societies.

The procession marched in front of the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit, the residence of the President of the Typographical Union, and President Waterbury before it reached the lake front. The procession then turned and marched down the lake front, past the residence of the President of the Typographical Union, and President Waterbury before it reached the lake front.

Unostentatious and Useful.

Suitable for either library or living room, this combination bookcase and writing desk must commend itself for its many useful properties.

The wood is the best sawn quartered oak, which in its fine graining adds greatly to its artistic merits.

There is at the top an oval mirror made of the finest French bevelled plate glass, and underneath the desk, a most useful adjunct, a chiffonier. Often the writer desires to refer to a book, and then the close proximity of the bookshelf enables him to do so more readily.

Why hesitate to invest $20.00 when such advantages bespeak their own praise?
